DR. RICHARD EUGENE STRANGE
 Richard Strange joined the staff of the Carnegie Mellon University in 1965 as the Director of the famous Killee Band. He has now attained the status of Professor of Music.

Dr. Strange earned his Bachelor of Music Education degree from the University of Wichita in 1959, Master of Music Education degree from the University of Colorado in 1957 and his Doctor of Musical Arts degree from Boston University in 1962.

In addition to conducting the Killee Band at Carnegie-Mellon University, Dr. Strange has also been active in the field of music education in Pennsylvania. He has served as the Director of the University Band and Clifton High School Band. Some of his current conducting assignments are the Gangle Civic Symphony Orchestras and Butler County Symphony Orchestra.

He is a member of the Phi-Mu Alpha-Symphonia, Kappa Kappa Psi Fraternity, American School Band Directors Association, Pennsylvania State Music Educators Association Life Member and the Pennsylvania College Band Directors Association.

The American-born conductor has several books and articles to his credit, as well as many recordings. In addition, he has given many clarinet recitals in Pennsylvania, New York and Alaska. Some of his several playing assignments include the Pennsylvania Orchestras, Wichita Symphony Orchestra, Carmel Symphony Orchestra, Springfield Symphony Orchestra, Corpus Christi Symphony Orchestra and the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Strange has been guest conductor with the Maine State Music Educators Association Conference, All-Maine Band Festival, Killee Symphony Band at Town Hill, New York, as well as numerous orchestras throughout America.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The New Jersey Music Educators Association, a division of the New Jersey Educational Association, wishes to express its appreciation to the Lakewood Board of Education, Dr. William Matkovich, Superintendent of Schools, for his generous contribution and for the use of the facilities for this concert. Appreciation and thanks are also extended to the parents and friends for sponsoring the All-State Band members and to the many schools and organizations who assisted.

THE CONDUCTORS

GENE WITHERSPOON

Symphonic Band Conductor

Gene Witherspoon serves as Head of the Music Department and Director of Bands at Arkansas Tech College in Russellville, Arkansas. During his 23-year tenure at Arkansas Tech he has developed the largest music teachers preparation program in the state of Arkansas.

The Arkansas Tech Symphonic Band, under Mr. Witherspoon's direction, has been featured on three professional music organizations national convention programs: American Music Educators National Conference in 1968, the College Band Directors National Association in 1969, and the American School Band Directors National Association in 1969. Mr. Witherspoon served as president of the 7-state Southwest Division of M.E.N.C. and was a member of the National M.E.N.C. Board for two years. He is past president of All-State groups in Alabama, Mississippi, Missouri, and Tennessee. Mr. Witherspoon has served as clinician, guest conductor and workshop director in 14 additional states.

STANLEY D. HETTINGER

Wind Ensemble Conductor

Stanley D. Hettinger is Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Music at the University of New Hampshire. He received his undergraduate education at Ohio State University, where he studied with Dr. Donald E. McMillen. He received his Master of Education degree from Vanderlip College of Music in Danbury, Connecticut. At the University of New Hampshire Mr. Hettinger has continually sought to raise the musical standards of the Band to higher levels of perfection.

Mr. Hettinger has conducted festival and All-State Bands throughout New England and is frequent soloist. In addition, he is the founder and Director of the Northeast Instrumental Music Conference which has for three years had its sessions and sessions together for three days on the NH Campus.

THE CONDUCTORS

DONALD A. MATTRAN
 Wind Ensemble Conductor

Donald A. Mattran is Director of Hartt College of Music, University of Hartford, a post he has held since 1972. Mr. Mattran has also held positions on the faculties of Boston University and the University of Michigan. His degrees are from the University of Michigan.

Mr. Mattran maintains an active conducting schedule at Hartt College and throughout the Region. He is musical director and conductor for Hartt opera theaters' 35th Anniversary season. To his credit are numerous premier-performances, recordings, and three original TV productions broadcast over Public Broadcasting Systems. He tours extensively and has conducted numerous Allstate Festivals.

A frequent lecturer and panelist, he is co-author with Mary Rasmussen of "A Teacher's Guide to the Literature of Woodwind Instruments!"

DR. RICHARD E. STRANGE
 Symphonic Band Conductor

Richard E. Strange is Director of Bands and Professor of Music at Arizona State University. He received his Bachelor of Music at the University of Wichita, his Master of Music at the University of Colorado, and his Doctorate at Boston University.

His credits are too numerous to mention, but include guest conducting, various playing assignments, and many lectures and published articles. Dr. Strange was selected as one of the ten most outstanding Music Directors in the United States by the School Music Magazine, November 1974. He was selected for inclusion in International Who's Who in Music and Musicians Directory 1975-76.

This is the second time Dr. Strange has conducted the New Jersey Allstate Band, the first time was in 1970.

DONALD MARRS
Conductor - Symphonic Band

1978 AI

Donald Marrs attended the University of Michigan School of Music, serving as Euphonium Soloist with the Michigan Band and as student instructor of trombone. He was a member of the famed national championship band, under the direction of William D. Revelli. Upon graduation from the University of Michigan, he taught as brass specialist at Miami University (Ohio) and was Euphonium Soloist with the Mason City, Iowa Municipal Band, under the direction of Carlton.

Mr. Marrs initiated the instrumental music program in the Parsippany - Troy Hills school system, where he has taught for the past 24 years. He has been active in the state music organizations, holding various positions, including a term of office as President of Region I. He has served as a member of the selection committee of the Educational Record Series and also on the LeBlanc Advisory Board. He has been an adjudicator and clinician in many areas around the country. His bands have twice represented the state at the Eastern Division Conference of MENC, have performed at N. J. State Conferences, and at the Mid-East Music Conference at Pittsburgh.

FRANK L. BATTISTI

Conductor - Symphonic Band

Mr. Battisti, Chairman of the Music Education Department of the New England Conservatory, is conductor of the famed New England Wind Ensemble. Under Mr. Battisti's leadership, the Ensemble has established a national reputation as one of the premier ensembles of its kind. One of the foremost authorities on wind music literature, he has conducted wind ensembles and bands for over 20 years. During this period, he was director of bands at Ithaca High School, Ithaca, New York where his band earned a national reputation through its continuous high level of performance at major music conferences and for its unique commissioning works project. From 1967-69, Mr. Battisti was conductor of the Baldwin-Wallace College Symphonic Wind Ensemble. He was appointed to the faculty of the New England Conservatory in 1969. Mr. Battisti is president-elect of the College Band Directors National Association and the founder of the National Wind Ensemble Conference.

RICHARD B. CASTIGLIONE

Conductor - Wind Ensemble

Mr. Castiglione holds a BS and MS in music and Music Education. As a professional musician, he played trumpet and conducted at the radio and TV studios in New York City. He has conducted the symphonic winds at the Manhattan School of Music and the Philadelphia Music Academy. At the Philadelphia Musical Academy he also served as Dean of Students and later as Dean of the College. Mr. Castiglione was supervisor of music in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania School System and is very active as a clinician and conductor for regional and all-state groups. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha and is listed in the Outstanding Educators of America. Mr. Castiglione is presently Director of the Amherst Music Center in Raymond, Maine.
