ARTHUR H. BRANDENBURG
GUEST CONDUCTOR

MORRIS HILLS REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL
ROCKAWAY, NEW JERSEY

MARCH 4, 5, AND 6, 1960

sponsored by the
NEW JERSEY MUSIC EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION
a department of the
NEW JERSEY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

ARTHUR H. BRANDENBURG

Mr. Arthur H. Brandenburg was born in Waverly, Iowa. He was Salutatorian of his high school graduating class and now holds the Master of Arts degree. He is matriculated for a Doctor of Education degree at New York University School of Education and has completed his specified course work. Over the thirty six years he has served the field of education, Mr. Brandenburg has held positions which include that of high school principal, supervisor of music, university music instructor and his present position of Assistant Director of Instruction in Charge of Music Education in the city of Elizabeth.

His excellent organizational ability has been responsible for the formation of the first school band in Elizabeth, the first Solo and Ensemble Contest in New Jersey and the First New Jersey All-State High School Symphonic Band and Instrumental Forum some twenty one years ago. Many pupils and organizations under Mr. Brandenburg's direction, have won many honors on state and national levels.

He has maintained continuous contact in state and national music affairs as is attested by the many years he was chairman of the New Jersey All-State Band Forums and his election to the office of Vice President and President of the American School Band Directors Association in 1956-57. He is at present a member of the executive board of that organization and also serves as director on the John Philip Sousa Memorial Project which is endeavoring to restore the Sousa home in Washington, D. C. as a national shrine.

Mr. Brandenburg has many publications and articles on music to his credit. Many have appeared in national music magazines and his instrumental arrangements have been published by the major music publishers in New York.

His personal experiences in the field of music have included being solo cornetist in college and municipal bands, church organist and choirmaster and for the past sixteen years, conductor of the Elizabeth Recreation Concert Band.

JAMES NEILSON
GUEST CONDUCTOR

PENNSAUKEN HIGH SCHOOL
PENNSAUKEN, NEW JERSEY

MARCH 3, 4 and 5, 1961

Sponsored by the
NEW JERSEY MUSIC EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION
a department of the

JAMES NEILSON

James Neilson, director of the Oklahoma City University Band and Choir and Professor of instrumental music education, is recognized as one of the more outstanding musicians in the nation. He is in constant demand as an adjudicator, clinician and speaker at music clinics and meetings all over the United States.

Joining the OCU staff in 1936, the musical organizations of the University have grown tremendously under his direction. Not only have the Band and Choir expanded in numbers, but they have gained valuable experience through countless concerts, performances on national radio broadcasts, and presentation over the network television.

Besides holding the position at OCU, Mr. Neilson is also director of music for the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce. For years, before other duties interrupted this service, he was first trumpet with the Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Neilson is the co-author with Ruth Shafer of the Preparatory Department of the Julliard School of Music of a music work book series, "The Music Road". He has also contributed many articles to such professional publications as "Etude," "The Instrumentalist" and "The Musician". The OCU professor is too a composer and arranger of several works.

Educated at the Chicago Musical College and Julliard, he has studied privately under William Broughton, Edward Lewellyn, Clarence Burg, Harold Marryott, Hadley Outland and Fritz Mahler.

His professional affiliations include Phi Mu Alpha, Music Educators National Conference, Music Teachers National Association, College Band Directors National Association and the Oklahoma Music Educators Association. A guest professor on the summer school music faculty of the University of Michigan, he is listed in "Who's Who in the South and Southwest," and is a member of the American Bandmaster's Association.

Mr. Neilson came to OCU from Chicago where he had been serving as musical director of the CBS Broadcast of Paul Rader's Chicago Gospel Tabernacle.

He is President of the College Band Directors National Association.

He was recently presented an honorary Doctor of Music Degree from McMurray College, Abilene, Texas.

To further the cause of good music in America...

The THEODORE PRESSER COMPANY has been tireless in its efforts to present the best in music of the past and present to the musical public. In recent years the Company has made great strides in expanding its catalog, not only of teaching and recreational music, but also of operatic, symphonic, solo and ensemble literature.

America is richly endowed with natural musical resources. Composers, performers, teachers, students, listeners, in greatly increasing numbers, find more and more opportunities for the practice, expression and enjoyment of their art. An important adjunct of this national musical development has been the Theodore Presser Company's acquisition of notable specialized publishing concerns. For example, the pioneering effort in behalf of the publication of music by contemporary American composers, the New Music Edition, is now a part of the Presser catalog. The impressive variety of compositions by European composers, especially of the baroque and contemporary periods, in such catalogs as Musica Rara, Heugel, Editions Musicales Transatlantiques and Impero Verlag is now presented by the Presser Company. Making these works known to American musicians is another significant contribution to the enrichment of our national musical life.

We believe that the music publisher has a deep responsibility for sustaining and stimulating our richly developing musical culture and we have been and are dedicated to fulfilling this responsibility.

Glenn Cliffe Bainum

Glenn Cliffe Bainum, who holds the honor of being Director Emeritus of the Northwestern University Band, was born in Olney, Illinois, and received his college training at the University of Illinois where he served as Assistant Director of Bands until he accepted a position as Director of Music for Southern Illinois University.

Thousands of alumni who heard his famous bands at Northwestern for 27 years will always remember him as an inspiring and competent director, who gave of himself so that Northwestern would have the finest marching and symphonic bands in the mid-west.

Among his numerous accomplishments are: Director of the 200 piece, electrically illuminated marching band which provides the pomp and pageantry for the Chicago Tribune Annual "All Star" football game at Soldiers Field, Chicago; Director of similar pageants for the Philadelphia Inquirer's Annual "Football Classic" and the Philadelphia "Music Festival"; Associate Conductor of the Grand Rapids, Michigan Symphony Orchestra; Director of the Joliet, Illinois, Choral Society; Associate Director of the Chicago North Shore Music Festival and Conductor of a professional band of 75 musicians which gave summer concerts in Grant Park, Chicago.

Probably Professor Bainum's greatest accomplishment was as a Major in World War II when he was selected to serve as Chief of the Music Branch of Special Services where he personally supervised all music, including bands, in the European Theatre.

ed Director of Marching Band and Instructor in Theory in 1961 while completing his Masters Degree, and also held the post of Assistant Director, Upper Batnam's retirement in 1958. Paynter was made Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Theory at the age of twenty-five.

In addition to heading the Band Department at Northwestern, Paynter teaches courses in Band Technique, Conducting, Band Arranging, Orchestration, and Marching Manuevers. He is orchestra conductor for the University's famed musical revue, the Was Ma show, and production and choral arranger.

Mr. and Mrs. Paynter reside in Glenview, Illinois with their son Bruce (12) and daughter Megan (9). Their hobbies include gardening, record collecting,
and photography.

At thirty-five, John F. Krauss is an Associate Professor in the Northwestern University School of Music. During the space of the last ten years he has gained the respect of leading bandsmen everywhere for the excellence of his concert and marching organizations and he has conducted clinics and concerts in 42 of the 50 states. He is the original director and annual guest conductor for Michigan's Iron County Band Camp each June. Pay-nter's arrangements and compositions, several of them in published form, have been played by bands throughout the country, and his busy schedule includes a judging or conducting assignment almost every weekend from January through June each year.

Dr. Harry Begian

Director of Bands
Wayne State University
Detroit, Michigan

Dr. Begian became Director of Bands at Wayne State University in September, 1964. Prior to that, he was director of the Cass Technical High School Band of Detroit for seventeen years. While at Cass, he also headed the music and performing arts departments. A graduate of Wayne State University, he holds bachelor's and master's degrees from that institution. He received his doctoral degree from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

Dr. Begian has studied conducting at Tanglewood, summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and has been a conductor on the summer music staffs at Wayne State University, Michigan State University, and the National Music Camp, Interlochen.

He has appeared as guest lecturer at the University of Michigan, and has been in demand throughout the mid-west and the eastern states as guest conductor, adjudicator, and clinician. Most recently he has been associated as conductor with the National Music Camp at Interlochen, the Michigan Opera Company of Detroit, and the International Symphony Orchestra at Port Huron and Sarnia. For five seasons he has been guest conductor of the well known Phi Mu Alpha Fraternity Band of Detroit.

A charter member of the American School Band Director's Association, he is also an honorary member of the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association. Dr. Begian has recently been elected to membership in the American Bandmaster's Association and is the conductor of the American Choral Society of Metropolitan Detroit and the South Oakland County Concert Band.

MR. FRANK A. PIERSOL

Director of Bands
Iowa State University
Ames, Iowa

Frank A. Piersol is professor of music and director of bands at Iowa State University. He received the B. A. degree from Grinnell College and the M. A. degree from the University of Iowa.

Piersol came to Iowa State with a wide background in the field of high school music, having taught in high schools from class D to class AA in size. During that time his groups, concert bands, marching bands and orchestras were consistent championship winners in state contest series.

Piersol has been active in professional circles. He has served as president of the College Band Directors National Association. He is a member of Kappa Kappa Psi, Phi Mu Alpha, Phi Beta Mu and Cardinal Key, honorary society for outstanding service to campus activities. In 1966 he was awarded a citation for outstanding service to the University by the alumni association. He has been elected to membership in the American Bandmasters' Association.

A series of marching band shows and precision drill routines by Piersol has recently been published and is receiving wide acceptance in the high school field.

A DEPARTMENT OF THE

DR. LUCIEN CAILLIET
 Director of Publications
 G. Leblanc, Inc.

Dr. Lucien Cailliet is a graduate of the French National Conservatoire where he was awarded first prize on clarinet. He was awarded the degree of Doctor of Music by the Philadelphia Musical Academy. Dr. Cailliet has studied composition with Paul Fauchet and Georges Caussades, fugue with Andre Gedalge and orchestration and band scoring with Gabriel Pares.

A few of Dr. Cailliet's professional credits include Clarinetist and Arranger with the Philadelphia Orchestra under Messers Stokowski and Ormandy, composer-conductor with Hollywood Motion Picture Studios, principally Paramount Studios, with over 25 film scores to his credit including the orchestration of the film score "The Ten Commandments" and conductor of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo Orchestra.

Dr. Cailliet was Professor of Music at the University of Southern California from 1938 to 1945 and Professor of Composition at Trenton State College. He has over 200 compositions for Orchestra, Band and Chorus listed by America's leading publishers.

Dr. Cailliet has for many years devoted much of his efforts to raising the standards of music performed in our public schools. He has been a frequent guest conductor of All State and Festival Bands and Orchestras throughout the country.

His present position is director of Leblanc Publications Inc., music and educational literature publishing subsidiary of the G. Leblanc Corporation.

Frederick Fennell joined the University of Miami School of Music September 1, 1965 as Conductor in Residence.

With the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester from 1939 to 1962, Mr. Fennell was Associate Music Director of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra 1962-1964.

In addition to conducting the University of Miami Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Fennell conducts the University of Miami Symphonic Wind Ensemble patterned after the famous group he founded at the Eastman School in 1952.

His work with that group has been recorded in 25 albums of music by the classical division of Mercury Records which also produced a series with Mr. Fennell as conductor of the Eastman-Rochester Pops Orchestra, the London Pops Orchestra, and the Fennell Symphonic Winds.

During his association with Eastman, Mr. Fennell also conducted the school's Symphony Orchestra, Little Symphony, Symphony Band, Chamber Orchestra and Opera Theater. In 1961-1962, he was co-conductor with Howard Hanson for the Eastman Philharmonia's three-month tour of western Europe, the Mid-East and Russia, sponsored by the U.S. Department of State.

The American-born conductor started his conducting training at the age of 17 at the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich., where he was a scholarship student for three summers.

He also was a scholarship student at Eastman, where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees and won an international fellowship in conducting for study in the Mozarteum at Salzburg in 1938. Mr. Fennell also holds an honorary Doctor of Music degree from Oklahoma City University, awarded in 1957.

A private pupil of Serge Koussevitsky at the famous Berkshire Music Center, Tanglewood, in 1942, Mr. Fennell was appointed Koussevitsky's assistant in orchestral conducting in 1948.

Guest conductor of numerous orchestras throughout America, he has been cited by the National Association for American Conductors and Composers for outstanding services on behalf of American music.

In the summer of 1965 and 1966, Mr. Fennell conducted The School Orchestra of America on its tours of Europe.
