Eugene Migliaro Corporon
Conductor, Wind Ensemble

Eugene Migliaro Corporon is the conductor of the Wind Symphony and Professor of Music at the University of North Texas. As Director of Wind Studies he guides all aspects of the program, including the masters and doctoral degrees in Wind Conducting. Mr. Corporon is a graduate of California State University, Long Beach and Claremont Graduate University and has held positions at the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, Michigan State University, the University of Northern Colorado, the University of Wisconsin, and California State University, Fullerton. His ensembles have performed at the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic, the Southwestern Music Educators National Conference, the Texas Music Educators Convention, the International Trumpet Guild Conference, the International Clarinet Society Convention, the National Wind Ensemble Conference, the College Band Directors National Association Conference, the Japan Band Clinic, and the Conference for the World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles. Having recorded over 300 works, including many premieres and commissions, his groups have released thirty-two recordings on the Toshiba/EMI, Klavier, Mark, Donemus, Soundmark, GIA and Centaur labels. Mr. Corporon maintains an active guest conducting schedule and is in demand as a conducting teacher and visiting lecturer throughout the world. He is President of the College Band Directors National Association, and has been honored by the American Bandmasters Association and by Phi Beta Mu with invitations to membership. Mr. Corporon is co-editor of two literature catalogs, Wind Ensemble/Band Repertoire (1984) and Wind Ensemble Literature (1975). He is co-host with Barry Green on The Inner Game of Music video which focuses on overcoming mental obstacles and achieving one's full potential as a performer. Mr. Corporon is co-author of the book Teaching Music Through Performance in Band that is published in three volumes by GIA Publications. This series includes three sets of Resource Recordings by the North Texas Wind Symphony. The Teaching Music Project emphasizes the importance of comprehensive conceptual learning in the music-making process.

Dennis Fisher
Conductor, Symphonic Band

Dennis Fisher is the Conductor of the Symphonic Band and Associate Director of Wind Studies at the University of North Texas. As Professor of Music in Conducting and Ensembles, Mr. Fisher is integrally involved with the conducting and music education programs at the University. A Kansas native, he holds degrees from Emporia State University and Fort Hays State University.

Mr. Fisher brings to his position a wide variety of experience and expertise as a conductor, arranger, clinician, educator, and consultant. He is very active as an arranger for all wind mediums, including symphonic band, marching band and chamber music and serves frequently as a clinician, conductor, and adjudicator throughout the country. He has lectured, conducted and performed in Thailand, Japan, Great Britain, Europe, Scandinavia, and throughout the United States.

He holds professional memberships in Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Texas Music Educators Association, Texas Bandmasters Association, and the college Band directors National Band Fraternity. Other honors include twice being named "Top Prof" by the Mortarboard Society at U.N.T., and the NT Community Award. Mr. Fisher has recorded on the Mark, Eurosound, and Klavier labels with the University of North Texas Symphonic Band and Wind Symphony. He served as recording and editing producer of the Teaching Music through Performance in Band compact disc recordings, Vol. I (1997) and Vol. II (1998), published and distributed by G.I.A. Publications.

Stephen W. Pratt
Conductor, Wind Ensemble

Stephen W. Pratt is Professor of Music, associate director of bands, and Director of the Summer Music Clinic at the Indiana University School of Music. He conducts the Symphonic Band and teaches graduate conducting as well as other courses in the graduate wind conducting program. He is in constant demand as a guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator of wind bands and orchestras across the country.

Currently in his twenty-sixth year of teaching, Professor Pratt joined the IU faculty in 1984 and was honored as a faculty member of the highest distinction in 1988 by the combined honor societies on campus. In 1993 he was the recipient of The Distinguished Service to Music Medal awarded by Kappa Kappa Psi. In 1998 he was honored with the Outstanding Bandmaster award by the Gamma chapter (Indiana) of Phi Beta Mu. He was recently honored with the Outstanding University Music Educator Award, presented by the Indiana Music Educators Association.

He serves the CBDNA North Central division Board as president-elect, and has served as president of the Indiana Bandmasters Association and as a member of the Indiana Educators Association Board of directors. He was Music Director and Conductor of the Bloomington Symphony Orchestra from 1995-2000.

Professor Pratt holds degrees from Indiana University, where he was the recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Service and Opperman Music scholarships, and The University of Michigan where he was awarded the Hauenstein Scholarship.

Mr. Pratt has a number of years of experience teaching bands and orchestras in the public schools of Sturgis, Michigan, where he conducted groups of national recognition. He is a member of CBDNA, NBA, IBA, MENC, and numerous other professional associations and fraternities. He and his wife Darlene have two children, Abigail and Nathan.

Richard L. Blatti
Conductor, Symphonic Band

Richard Blatti is an Associate Professor of Conducting and Associate Director of Bands at The Ohio State University. He also supervises all undergraduate conducting curricula and assists with the graduate wind conducting program. OSU Bands under his direction have premiered numerous new works, recorded for the Delos label, and performed for national conferences of the College Band Directors National Association and the Ohio Music Educators Association. He has been invited to guest conduct in Australia, China, England, France, the Netherlands, and Canada and has appeared with All-State or Honor Bands throughout the United States and Canada. Professor Blatti is the 1991 recipient of The Ohio State University School of Music Distinguished Teaching Award.

Prior to his appointment at OSU, he was Associate Professor of Music at Albion College in Michigan, where he served as Director of Instrumental Music, conducting numerous groups. Under his direction, the Albion College Wind Ensemble achieved critical acclaim for performances across the country and Canada. During his ten years on the Albion Faculty, Mr. Blatti was selected the outstanding Faculty Member of the Year in 1986.

Mr. Blatti co-founded the Albion, Michigan, Community Band in 1980 and has assisted similar organizations in Michigan, Illinois, and Ohio. In 1995, he was appointed the Music Director and Conductor of the Heisey Wind Ensemble, a well-established adult community band affiliated with Denison University. He has also been invited to guest conduct and teach at numerous university campuses, school music programs, and summer camps throughout the US, Europe, Canada, and Australia.

Mr. Blatti earned both the Bachelor of Music Education and the Master of Music degrees from Northwestern University, and has done post-graduate work in Conducting at Michigan State University. Recently elected to the American Bandmasters Association, Professor Blatti has also served the College Band Directors National Association as State President, the Big Ten Band Directors Association as Secretary, and is a member of MENC, Ohio Music Educators Association, Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, as well as several music fraternities.

Dr. Jack Stamp
Conductor, Wind Ensemble

Dr. Jack Stamp is Professor of Music and Conductor of Bands at Indiana University of PA where he conducts the Wind Ensemble, Symphony Band, and teaches courses in conducting. Dr. Stamp received his BS in Music Ed. degree from IUP, a Master's in Percussion Performance from E. Carolina Univ., and a Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in Conducting from Michigan State Univ. where he studied with Eugene Corporon.

Prior to his appointment at IUP, he served as chairman of the Division of Fine Arts at Campbell Univ. in No. Carolina, where he also taught for several years in the public schools. Dr. Stamp served as conductor of the Duke Univ. Wind Symphony (1988-89) and was musical director of the the Triangle British Brass Band, leading them to a national brass band championship in 1989.

Dr. Stamp's primary composition teachers have been Robert Washburn and Fisher Tull, and recent studies include work with noted American composers David Diamond, Joan Tower and Richard Danielpour. He is active as a guest conductor, clinician, adjudicator, and composer throughout North America and Great Britain. His compositions have been commissioned and performed by leading bands across the US. He has won the praise of many American composers, among whom are David Diamond, Fisher Tull, Robert Ward, Samuel Adler, Nancy Galbraith and Bruce Yurko for performances of their works. He is also a contributing author to the "Teaching Music Through Performance in Band" series released by GIA Publications.

In 1996, he received the Orpheus Award from the Zeta Tau chapter of Phi Mu Alpha for service to music and was named a "Distinguished Alumnus" of IUP. In 1999, he received the "Citation of Excellence" from PMEA. In 2000, he was inducted into the prestigious American Bandmasters Association.

Two CD recordings on the Citadel label entitled "Past the Equinox: The Music of Jack Stamp" and "Cloudsplitter" by the Keystone Wind Ensemble with the composer conducting feature his band works. He is founder and conductor of this ensemble, whose Citadel releases include "Night Fantasy: The Wind Music of Robert Ward", "Celebrations", "Wind Visions: The Music of Samuel Adler", "Songs of Abelard", "Pageant", and "Cornerstones".

Dr. Thomas J. O'Neal
Conductor, Symphonic Band

Thomas J. O'Neal teaches at Arkansas State Univ. in Jonesboro, AK. His areas of expertise include concert band, wind ensemble, conducting, and band techniques. A native Iowan, Dr. O'Neal received a B Mus. Ed. degree from Iowa State Univ., the Master of Music degree from the Univ. of So. Dakota, and the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in conducting from the Univ. of Arizona.

Dr. O'Neal began his teaching career in the Iowa public schools. Prior to joining the ASU faculty, he served in a similar capacity at Hastings College in Nebraska and Pacific Lutheran Univ. in Tacoma, WA. Under his leadership, all areas of both band programs enjoyed significant growth as evidenced by numerous band performances at state, regional, and national conferences. In 1991, the Pacific Lutheran Univ. Wind Ensemble was featured at the prestigious Grieg Music Festival in Bergen, Norway. The ensemble was also featured on several occasions on the National Public Radio program "Performance Today."

The ASU Wind Ensemble released their first CD, "Visions" in 1995. The CD features the music of Arkansas band composers and has received critical acclaim for "fine playing...high musical integrity and energy." In 1998, the Wind Ensemble released a live recording of their performance at the College Band Directors National Association which featured Pulitzer Prize winning composer Karel Husa's Apotheosis of This Earth and his Concerto for Piano and Winds, and has been acknowledged by the composer as "one of the finest live performances of my music that I have ever experiences." The Wind Ensemble has also recorded on the Citadel Records label, and for Southern Music and Counterpoint Music publishers.

Dr. O'Neal has commissioned and premiered numerous pieces for band and wind ensemble and has earned praise from such notable composers as Karel Husa, Timothy Mahr, Joseph Schwantner, Jack Stamp, and Gregory Youtz for his interpretations of their music.

Dr. O'Neal is an active guest conductor, lecturer, and clinician throughout North America and Europe, and has been featured on state, regional, and international music conferences. He also serves as a band education consultant for Amro Music Stores in Memphis, TN.

In consideration of your fellow music lovers, please remember seating is not permitted after the performance has begun. It is respectfully requested that you not leave the auditorium during a selection. This policy is designed to enhance everyone's pleasure. Also, it is asked that photographs not be taken during the performance, as this is distracting to both the students and the other members of the audience. Photographs are available from the designated photographers, Penino Studios and Unique Photography.

This performance is being recorded by Amp Recordings. Please turn off pagers and cellular telephones for the duration of the program. We ask for your cooperation in this regard, as we would like to have as clean of a tape as possible. Please note: the use of any other recording device during this performance is illegal

In consideration of your fellow music lovers, please remember seating is not permitted after the performance has begun. It is respectfully requested that you not leave the auditorium during a selection. This policy is designed to enhance everyone's pleasure. Also, it is asked that photographs not be taken during the performance, as this is distracting to both the students and the other members of the audience. Photographs are available from the designated photographers, Penino Studios and Unique Photography.

This performance is being recorded by Amp Recordings. Please turn off pagers and cellular telephones for the duration of the program. We ask for your cooperation in this regard, as we would like to have as clean of a tape as possible. Please note: the use of any other recording device during this performance is illegal.

MEET THE ARTISTS

LESLIE E. MACPHERSON

Leslie E. MacPherson is presently in her twentieth year of teaching at the Northern Valley Regional High School at Demarest where she directs five choirs and teaches Music Theory and Music Technology. She conducts the Northern Valle Regional High School Concert Choir, Sophomore Women's Choir and Freshman Chorus. Members of the Select Choir and the Select Women's Choir are chosen through audition. Ms. MacPherson's choirs consistently receive superior and excellent ratings at local, regional and national music festivals.

Ms. MacPherson has had the honor of conducting the 1995 Bergen County Chorus and the 2001 All North Jersey Region I Mixed Chorus. She is active in the Music Educators of Bergen County Inc. serving as a member of the executive committee and as the high school choir audition chair, a position she has held for many years. During her career she has also served as the New Jersey All-State Chorus assistant manager, audition chair and transportation coordinator. Ms. MacPherson has been a church choir director and organist for many years. She taught elementary instrumental music for many summers at Northern Valley. She enjoys summer music graduate courses and is a flautist in the Valley Chamber Group and the Teaneck Community Band.

Ms. MacPherson is grateful to the Choral Procedures Committee of NJMEA for giving her the honor of conducting this extremely talented group of young musicians, to Manager, Donna SanGiovanni, and to the chorus accompanist, Lucille DeMasi Guarino, for their many hours of hard work. Most importantly, she gives her eternal gratitude to the young women who have rehearsed tirelessly for many hours. Their open minds and lovely voices have made conducting the Women's Chorus a musical experience that will last a lifetime.

DONALD HUNSBERGER

Donald Hunsberger is Conductor Emeritus of the Eastman Wind Ensemble, having served as its Music Director from 1965-2202. He also holds the title Professor Emeritus of Conducting Ensembles at Eastman School of Music, where he served for many years as Chair of Conducting and Ensembles Department.

Under Mr. Hunsberger's leadership, the Eastman Wind Ensemble continued its development as an international performance model in the creation of numerous new works for the wind band, providing a prime example of contemporary performance techniques, as demonstrated on numerous recordings on Sony Classics, CBS Masterworks, Mercury Records, DDG Records, Phillips and Decca among others. In 1987, his score and recording of Carnival, featuring Winston Marsalis with the Eastman Wind Ensemble, was nominated for a Grammy® Award in the Best Solo Performance with Orchestra. Under his direction the EWE performed on six tours of Japan and Taiwan, and one throughout Japan and South East Asia for the Kambara Agency and the U.S. State Department.

MEET THE ARTISTS

DR. JASON WORBZBYT

Dr. Jason Worzbyt is Associate Professor of Bassoon and conductor of the Concert Band at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He is also Principal Bassoon and Assistant Conductor of the Johnstown Symphony Orchestra. He holds a B.S. in Music Education from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, a Master of Music in Wind Conducting from the University of North Texas and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Bassoon Performance from the University of North Texas. Dr. Worzbyt has studied bassoon with Kathleen Reynolds, principal bassoon of the Dallas Opera Orchestra and professor of bassoon at the University of North Texas; Kristen Wolfe Jensen, professor of bassoon at the University of Texas; and David T. Borst, professor emeritus of bassoon at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

His conducting teachers include Jack Stamp, director of band studies at Indiana University of Pennsylvania and Eugene Corporon, director of wind studies at the University of North Texas.

Dr. Worzbyt has performed, recorded and has been featured as a soloist with wind ensembles and orchestras all across the country. These ensembles include the Keystone Wind Ensemble, North Texas Wind Symphony, North Texas New Music Ensemble, Lexington Philharmonic Orchestra, Johnstown Symphony Orchestra and the Highland Wind Quintet. In 2001, Dr. Worzbyt gave the world premiere of Bruce Yurko's Concerto for Bassoon and Wind Ensemble with the Keystone Wind Ensemble at the College Band Directors National Association conference. He continues to remain active as an orchestral player, chamber musician and guest conductor all across Pennsylvania.

MEET THE CONDUCTORS

MAREZIA D. L. WARREN

New Jersey All State Women's Choir Conductor

Marezia Warren is Associate Professor and Coordinator of Music Education at New Jersey City University in Jersey City. She teaches graduate and undergraduate music education, conducts the Unity Ensemble, and is the Director of the Orff Program.

A frequent guest conductor, adjudicator and clinician, she has conducted several honor choruses including the New Jersey All State Mixed Chorus, the Massachusetts ACDA Women's Honor Choir, and numerous region and county festivals. For many years she was Director of Choral Music at Teaneck High School in Teaneck, New Jersey.

A member of the American Choral Directors Association, Dr. Warren served as NJ-ACDA Repertoire and Standards Chairperson of Ethnic and Multicultural Perspectives (1999-2003) and chaired New Jersey's first Multicultural Choral Conference and Festival in 2002. Her international choral and music education activities have included performing tours, study and workshops in Africa, Australia, Canada, China and Europe.

Dr. Warren earned her Doctorate and Master's degrees in Music and Music Education from Columbia University, Teachers College, and a Bachelor of Music Education from Howard University. Her post graduate studies include: Kodály certification from the University of Hartford and from the Kodály Pedagogical Institute in Kecskemét, Hungary; conducting studies at UCLA and Butler University in Indiana; and world music study at San Diego State University.

Her previous positions include Assistant Professor of Music Education at William Paterson University, and adjunct music education faculty positions at Montclair State University, Fairleigh Dickinson University and Herbert H. Lehman College (CUNY). Dr. Warren is Director of Music at the Presbyterian Church of Teaneck. She has been honored by Princeton University, the Coalition of Black Women, the Howard University Alumni Association, the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women, Who's Who of American Women and Who's Who Among America's Teachers.

RODNEY WINTHER TIMES

Wind Ensemble Conductor

Rodney Winther Times is currently in his ninth year as Director of Wind Studies and Professor of Music at the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. His duties at CCM include conducting the Wind Symphony, Chamber Winds and the CCM Chamber Players, while also teaching Masters and Doctoral students in Wind Conducting. Mr. Winther's frequent appearances as guest conductor and clinician have taken him across the United States and abroad, including England, Ireland, the Republic of Malaysia, Taiwan, Singapore, Venezuela and Canada. He has been invited to conduct many of the world's finest ensembles, including the Eastman Wind Ensemble, Summit Brass, The U.S. Navy Band, Taiwan National Symphony Orchestra Wind Ensemble, Kent Youth Wind Orchestra (England), World Youth Wind Symphony (Interlochen) and the Taller para Bandas del Tachira (Venezuela).

His conducting workshops, both in the United States and abroad, have been critically acclaimed, helping young conductors around the world for the past twenty-five years. His workshops and concerts in Venezuela were recently recognized when he was awarded the Otorga Botón Honor al Mérito by the Governor of the State of Tachira—the first American to receive this honor. In the summer of 2005, he and CCM were awarded the 14th WASBE Convention, which will be held in Cincinnati in July of 2009. In addition, he was elected to the International Board of Directors of WASBE, whom he will serve for the next six years.

Mr. Winther has been a leader in the commissioning and performing of new works for the wind band, including premiere performances and recordings by such distinguished composers as Karel Husa, Joseph Schwaninger, Warren Benson, Samuel Adler, Dana Wilson, David Amram and Adam Gorb, among numerous others. His two recordings with the CCM Wind Symphony on the Naxos label feature world premieres of works by Bruce Adolphé and Samuel Adler, with the Adolphé recording being awarded a Grammy® for "Producer of the Year." Equally impressive reviews have been written about his two CD set of Karel Husa's works on Mark Records with the Ithaca College Wind Ensemble.

Mr. Winther has been invited to conduct at numerous conventions, including several times at the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic, as well as the International Women's Brass Conference, the Rafael Mendez Brass Institute, the International Saxophone Convention (Montreal), the International Saxophone Symposium of the U.S. Navy Band, the National Saxophone Alliance, the National Trumpet Guild, the Eastern Trombone Workshop of the U.S. Army Band and the 1995 and 1997 BASBWE conventions in England.

His book, An Annotated Guide to Wind Chamber Music, has already been hailed as a much needed and valuable resource in this ever-growing area. Both this book and his new edition of Ruth Gipps' Seascape have been published by Warner Brothers Publications as part of the Donald Hunsberger Wind Band Library. Future volumes by Mr. Winther will include his Annotated Guide to Mixed Wind, String and Percussion Chamber Music, as well as his Annotated Guide to Music for the Wind Ensemble/Wind Orchestra. His reputation and experience recently resulted in his being selected for inclusion in Who's Who in Fine Arts Higher Education.

STEVE BOLSTAD

Symphonic Band Conductor

Steve Bolstad is in his twelfth year as Director of Bands at The University of Montana. His responsibilities include conducting the Symphonic Wind Ensemble and Chamber Winds, and administrating the entire band program. He also teaches applied trumpet, conducting, instrumental methods, coaches a number of brass chamber ensembles, and observes the instrumental student teachers. He has held similar positions in Alabama at both The University of Montevallo and Livingston University, and he was the Director of Bands at St. Mary's Area High School in St. Marys, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Bolstad holds the Bachelor of Music Education degree from Clarion University of Pennsylvania, the Master of Music degree from Ithaca College in Ithaca, New York, and the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in conducting from The University of Texas at Austin. He has served as a guest conductor, clinician, and adjudicator throughout the United States and Canada. In 2004, Dr. Bolstad was named the University of Montana School of Fine Arts Distinguished Faculty Awardee. Dr. Bolstad is a Past-President of the Montana Bandmasters Association and is currently the President-Elect of the Northwest Division of the College.

MEET THE CONDUCTORS

HILLARY COLTON is in her 15th year as Director of Choral Activities at Hunterdon Central Regional High School in Flemington, NJ, where she directs the Chorale, Men of Hunterdon, Faculty Choir "The Noted Staff" and the Jazz Choir, and co-directs the Concert Choir, Women's Choir, Freshman Mixed Choir, and the Freshman Girls' Choir.

In 2006 Ms. Colton was named Master Music Teacher of the Year by the New Jersey Music Educators Association. She was also the recipient of the 2006 Governors, Award for Excellence in Arts Education.

She received her Masters of Music in Vocal Performance from the Manhattan School of Music and her Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance and Music Education from The University of Delaware where she was named "Outstanding Student Teacher of the Year." Ms. Colton was the inaugural conductor of the Central Jersey Region II Women's Honor's Choir, and also served as a rehearsal conductor for the 2003 NJ All-State Choir. Ms. Colton is the Head Choral Director of the American Music Abroad Gold Tour Honors Choir which tours and concretizes in Europe every summer.

Choirs under Ms. Colton's direction consistently achieve first place and superior ratings in music festivals. Hunterdon Central Choirs have been selected 13 times to represent Hunterdon County at the State Teen Arts Festival. Under her tutelage the choral enrollment has increased from 40 to 325 students, and over 250 students have been selected for membership in honors choirs during her tenure at HCRHS. The High School music faculty has increased from two to six music teachers.

Ms. Colton serves as the High School Choral Division Chairperson on the CJMEA Board, on the All-State Choral Procedures Committee and is the Head Counselor for the NJ All State Mixed Choir. She has been a clinician for NJMEA, NJEA and ACDA.

Equally at home on the concert and opera stage, Ms. Colton frequently performs as a soloist with the Hunterdon Symphony and Choral Union and has performed operas, oratorios and recitals in Europe and the tri-state area.

Ms. Colton was the featured cover story in the September/October 2006 issue of Choral Director Magazine.

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT EDWARD J. TELEKY is the Drum Major of the United States Air Force Band, Bolting Air Force Base, Washington DC. He has conducted and directed over two thousand ceremonies before the world's highest officials before over 4 billion people around the globe, including White House and Pentagon arrivals for Heads of States from over thirty-six countries, military funerals at Arlington National Cemetery, and countless television appearances, including six feature segments on the NBC Today show. Chief Teleky was also the show designer for the United States Air Force 11th Wing productions at the 1995 Netherlands National Tattoo, The 1996 Scandinavian Tattoo's held in Norway and Sweden, and for a special tribute production featured on the 1998 Emmy Award winning Kennedy Center Honors telecast on CBS Television.

Chief Teleky is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music where he received a Bachelors and Master's degree in Music Performance. An accomplished composer and arranger, he has written for ensembles covering a vast array of musical idioms, including complete musical and visual arrangements for competitive marching field units. He has served as a show designer, musical arranger, instructor and clinician for some of the top drum and bugle corps and high school marching bands in the world, including the Santa Clara Vanguard, San Francisco Renegades, Scrapers of Japan, Sunrisers, Skyliners and Bayonne Bridgemen.

Chief Teleky is the author of several musical instruction books, including Fundamentals for the Pit Percussion Ensemble and The Universal Technique. His award winning composition, The Dance of Ki, was premiered by the Santa Clara Vanguard Percussion Ensemble as they captured the 1995 DCI Percussion Ensemble Championship. He has performed in many Broadway musicals, including Barnum, The King and I, Evita, and Sophisticated Ladies. He is a committee member for the Percussive Arts Society and an adjudicator for the National Judges Association.

Chief Teleky's military awards include the Meritorious Service Medal with an oak leaf cluster, Air Force Commendation Medal, Air Force Achievement Medal with an oak Leaf cluster, Air Force Good Conduct Medal with 4 oak leaf clusters and the National Defense Service Medal with bronze star.

MEET THE ARTISTS

J. CRAIG DAVIS, a native of Sylacauga, Alabama, is currently Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Trumpet at William Paterson University. In addition to those responsibilities, he is also brass coordinator for the music department, and teaches undergraduate and graduate instrumental conducting. He has also served in the faculties of Princeton University, Furman University, and The Interlochen Center for the Arts National Music Camp, The New Jersey Symphony Conducting Staff as Conductor and Music Director of Greater Newark Youth Orchestra, as well as, taught public school in New York State.

Davis holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Trumpet Performance from the Juilliard School where he was awarded a Gilck Fellowship in Performance, and the following degrees from the Eastman School of Music: Master of Music in Trumpet Performance, the Performer's Certificate in Trumpet Performance, and a Bachelor of Music in Music Education. His major trumpet teachers include Larry Black, Charles Geyer, Barbara Butler, Marie Speziale and Edward F. Treutel. His major conducting teacher was Mallory Thompson.

Davis is currently a freelance trumpeter and conductor in the New York Metropolitan area primarily as a soloist and participant in chamber music concerts. He has performed with the New Jersey Symphony, the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra and Pops, Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, and the Rochester Philharmonic. Dr Davis frequently guest conducts and serves as a clinician for honors bands, public schools and education conventions throughout the United States.

In consideration of your fellow music lovers, please remember seating is not permitted after the performance has begun. It is respectfully requested that you not leave the auditorium during a selection. This policy is designed to enhance everyone's pleasure. Also, it is asked that photographs not be taken during the performance, as this is distracting to both the students and the other members of the audience. Photographs are available from the designated photographers, Pennino Studios and Photography.

This performance is being recorded by Amp Recordings. Please turn off pagers and cellular telephones for the duration of the program. We ask for your cooperation in this regard, as we would like to have as clean of a tape as possible. Please note: the use of any other recording device during this performance is illegal.

In consideration of your fellow music lovers, please remember seating is not permitted after the performance has begun. It is respectfully requested that you not leave the auditorium during a selection. This policy is designed to enhance everyone's pleasure. Also, it is asked that photographs not be taken during the performance, as this is distracting to both the students and the other members of the audience. Photographs are available from the designated photographers, Pennino Studios and Photography.

This performance is being recorded by Amp Recordings. Please turn off pagers and cellular telephones for the duration of the program. We ask for your cooperation in this regard, as we would like to have as clean of a tape as possible. Please note: the use of any other recording device during this performance is illegal.

Meet the Conductors

Dr. Thomas Connors is the Director of Bands and Coordinator of Instrumental Music Studies at Kean University. In addition to conducting the Wind Ensemble and Concert Band, he also teaches conducting and other course in instrumental music as part of the Music Education degree program. Prior to joining the faculty at Kean he was the Assistant Director of Bands at Kent State University. He also taught secondary instrumental music in public schools in New Hampshire and New York.

Dr. Connors holds a Ph.D. in Music Education from Florida State University, a Master of Music in Conducting from New England Conservatory and Bachelor of Music degrees in Composition and Music Education from Berklee College of Music. In addition to his duties at Kean University, Dr. Connors is the Music Director and Conductor of the Westfield (NJ) Community Concert Band. He is also the Chairman of the Collegiate Division for the New Jersey Music Educators state board and a member of the executive board for the New Jersey Band Conference. He is a multiple recipient of Who's Who Among America's Teachers and an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi.

Art McKenzie has had a long and varied career as a music educator, voice teacher, performer and musical theatre director. He is a cum laude graduate of Westminster Choir College in Princeton, NJ (Bachelor of Music Education/Voice), and a magna cum laude graduate of Indiana University in Bloomington, IN (Master of Music/Voice).

Art has been conducting choirs for many years, beginning with his eleven years as Minister of Music in Havertown, PA and Plainfield, NJ. He has taught music in schools for twelve years. As a private voice teacher, Art has taught his students based on the Bel Canto technique he learned while studying with Metropolitan Opera singers Margaret Harshaw and Nicola Rossi-Lemeni. He has performed in concerts, recitals, operas and oratorios throughout the United States and in Spoleto, Italy.

In addition, Art has an extensive background in theatre, where he has stage direction, musical direction and performance experience. He has been involved in over 50 musicals at the Ritz Theatre Company in Oaklyn, NJ, where two of his productions were nominated for Philadelphia Barrymore Awards. Art has directed dozens of musicals at high schools as well. He has served as vocal director for musicals and as choral accompanist at Haddon Township High School for the past 19 years, where his wife is the choir and musical director.

Art is presently the Director of Choral Music at Overbrook Senior High School in Pine Hill. In the six years Art has taught at Overbrook the choral program has grown from 29 to 185 members. His choirs consistently receive superior ratings at festivals and competitions. In addition to his choral position, Art is also a Theatre Director at Overbrook. He has been directing plays and musicals there for the past 5 years.

He is a member of the South Jersey Choral Directors Association (SJCDA), the Music Educators National Conference (MENC), the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) and the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS). Art also serves on the NJ All-State Choral Procedures Committee.

Art recently conducted the 2009 South Jersey Senior High Chorus. He resides in Cherry Hill with his wife, Maryann.

John R. Pastin became the Director of Bands at Rowan University, Glassboro, New Jersey, in September 1998, following a distinguished career as a U.S. Navy Bandmaster and Musician. Besides conducting the wind ensemble and concert band, he teaches courses in conducting and ensemble rehearsal methods, and coaches in the areas of music arranging and jazz improvisation techniques. He is recognized nationally as a conductor of bands, clinician and adjudicator. Pastin also conducts the Burlington County Musical Society Concert Band (local 336), and remains active as a composer, arranger and commercial jazz woodwind performer.

Meet the Conductors

As a thirty-year veteran of the Navy's Music Program, Pastin has conducted, commanded, trained and performed with some of the Navy's most prestigious bands, including: the Navy Show Band, where he made two consecutive six-month tours to South America and West Africa; the Navy Band at Pearl Harbor; Navy Band Seattle; the multinational and multi-service NATO Forces Band in Naples, Italy, performing throughout Europe; U.S. Naval Academy Band, Annapolis; Navy Band, New Orleans; Navy Band, Orlando, Florida; and the premier United States Navy Concert Band and its specialty ensembles.

His performances include special concerts and ceremonies at the White House for Presidents Reagan, Bush and Clinton; feature concerts at Carnegie Hall, New York; Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and Constitution Hall, Washington, DC; Meyerson Hall, Dallas TX; the Vatican; Saint Petersburg, Russia; Tokyo, Japan; Beijing, China; and performance tours throughout Europe and to all fifty states.

He received many personal military awards including the Joint Meritorious Service Medal, the Navy Meritorious Service, Commendation and Achievement Medals, the Colonel George S. Howard Award for Musical Excellence, and upon his retirement as the Conductor of the United States Navy Band, the Legion of Merit, awarded by President William Clinton. In 1996 Pastin was inducted into Phi Beta Mu International Bandmasters fraternity, and in 1998 he was honored with membership in the prestigious American Bandmasters Association, the professional organization for master conductors and musicians. Membership into this elite organization is considered the highest honor by American bandsmen, in recognition for outstanding leadership and achievement in the field of concert bands and its music.

Pastin holds Doctor of Musical Arts and Master of Music degrees in Conducting, as well as a Bachelors degree with an emphasis in Jazz Performance. He studied at the University of Maryland, American Conservatory of Music, Northwestern University and the Navy School of Music. Prior to teaching at Rowan, he served on the faculties at Seminole Community College, Columbia College and the Navy School of Music.

A native of McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania, he is married to the former Arleen Kosh. They have three children: Adina, Danielle and Christopher.
